

OPENING QUOTE

Be the stone.

*Let your life create ripples
no one can deny.*

ONE LIFE · ONE CHOICE · RIPPLES WITHOUT END

THE PILLARS OF VIRTUE

The Quiet Foundation

Before a structure rises,
there is a moment no one sees.

The ground is measured.
The lines are drawn.
The foundation is chosen.

No walls stand yet.
No roof reaches the sky.

Only intention.

Yet in that unseen moment
the future of the entire structure is decided.

For what is built upon weak ground cannot endure the weight of time.

And what is built upon truth needs no defense but its strength.

So before the work begins,
stand still long enough to ask:

What foundation will your life rest upon?
